

YOUR PROFESSION. YOUR FUTURE.

The Australian Osteopathic Association (AOA) works hard to gain professional rights and recognition for osteopaths in Australia through advocacy, political lobbying and media campaigns.

"I BELIEVE A UNIFIED AND PROFESSIONAL BODY REPRESENTING OUR PROFESSION IS ESSENTIAL FOR OUR GROWTH AND EVOLUTION."

MELINDA BANKS, AOA MEMBER

WHY BE A MEMBER OF THE AOA?

- Protect your interests by supporting your professional association. The AOA lobbies to gain rights for osteopaths and promote the profession in the media.
- Stay in touch with the latest news that affects you. Receive Osteo Life newsletter and e-flyers with news, features, classifieds and more.
- Get exposure with a free listing in the AOA 'Find an Osteopath' search engine.
- Save money by taking advantage of professional indemnity insurance discounts and free advertising on the AOA online locum register.
- Advance your career through discounted continuing professional development (CPD), access to online scientific journals and informed advice from AOA members. CPD requirements for national registration to be announced 1 July 2010.
